

STATEMENTS for SPEECH
SEMI FINAL - BENGALURU

06-08-2026

SEMI FINAL

01. Society functions best when inequality is accepted.
02. Prosperity can weaken social responsibility.
03. Tolerance is more dangerous than aggression in the modern context.
04. Equality begins with recognizing differences.
05. A peaceful society may not be a just society.
06. Social harmony often hides unresolved conflicts.
07. Human dignity depends as much on conduct as on rights.
08. Political stability can be the result of democratic weakness.
09. Public participation is not conducive to good governance.
10. Law does not automatically create justice.
11. A popular government may not represent the public interest.
12. National unity often depends on convenient memories.
13. Political neutrality is itself a political position.
14. Good governance sometimes requires unpopular decisions.
15. The fear of disorder gives governments more power than the people's mandate.
16. Medical progress can prolong life without improving its quality.
17. A machine can make a fair decision without understanding justice.

18. The price of something rarely represents its true value.
19. Financial independence does not guarantee personal freedom.
20. Preserving culture often requires changing tradition.
21. Self-awareness does not always lead to happiness.
22. Competitive sport teaches society how to accept inequality.
23. Nature is neither kind nor cruel.
24. Visibility is frequently mistaken for importance.
25. Science is incapable of explaining the meaning of anything.